Comments received from The Ambassador of Ireland about The Irish American Tradition:

The Irish American Tradition

The Irish American Tradition is a history that straddles many decades and traces the trials and tribulations and ultimate victories of the Irish men and women who emigrated here in search of better life opportunities. It records the very substantial success so many of the emigrants and their descendants enjoyed as a result of having been given and taken advantage of those opportunities.

Dear Carl,

Bill Ford asked me to thank you for bestowing the Order of St. Patrick on the Ford family at your recent award ceremony and book launch event in Boston. It is a distinct honor for the Ford family to be included among the legendary leaders mentioned in The Irish American Tradition, and your thoughtful gift of an autographed copy of your book truly is appreciated.

Sincerely,
Brad Simmons
Director

Dear Mr. Beaulieu:

Thank you most sincerely for your letter of June 5, 2015, together with so many gifts - treasures - including a copy of the Irish American Tradition, a copy of the program, photographs, the pin, and the award. Your thoughtfulness is deeply appreciated.

Again, I am so very grateful for having been honored by Heritage Publishing, Inc. How I wish that I could have been with you for the event, but how happy I was to be able to send Ms. Helen Lowe to represent me.

With prayerful best wishes for a blessed summer, I am,

Faithfully In Christ,
Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York
